

Two Little Bulls Go A Longer Way

Wild West Returns to Downtown Palm Springs

AFTER THEIR 'ESCAPE' from Smoke Tree Ranch, two Brahman steers led more than a dozen men in a three-hour chase before their capture on the grounds of the Desert Inn in the wee small hours

SENDING FOR A TRUCK and horse, cowboys from the Ranch worked the Brahmas, one at a time, through a small gate, and as they were brought into the street, the cowboy and the horse were kept busy getting the steers into the truck. The above photo shows one steer being coaxed through the gate while lines are kept taut. (Desert Sun Staff Photos by Fred Weigel and Bob Nims).

Two Bulls on Loose Bring Wild West Air to Village

Police clerks were kept busy early this morning when two Brahman steers wandered from their corral at Smoke Tree Ranch, down Palm Canyon Drive, into Tahquitz Canyon, and ended up on the grounds of the Desert Inn.

Humane, Officer Bill Mueller was called at 11:27 last night when two calls reached the police department saying that two "cows" were meandering down Palm Canyon Drive.

BY THE TIME the humane officer caught up with the steers, they were headed for Tahquitz Canyon, and giving up the chase he returned to the police department. With no more reports after half an hour, he left the station and saw the steers going into the front gate of the Desert Inn.

Cowboys from Smoke Tree Ranch arrived with ropes and succeeded in capturing the Brahmas after cornering them between a chain-linked fence and a building. The next job was the tough one, and for more than a hour the men worked to get the animals into a van. At one time, the larger of the two succeeded in snapping the rope which held him, and it rushed the truck smashing into the side

U.S., English Plan Missile Pooling

LONDON — Defense Minister Duncan Sandys today announced, "full accord" with the United States on Anglo-American defense objectives, including "particular cooperation on guided missiles."

Sandys disclosed to the House of Commons what was omitted from the official communique on his discussions with American defense officials in Washington last week: The United States and Britain would pool missile research as they pooled atomic development during World War II.

of the morning. Caught between a building and a chain-link fence, the steers were secured to porch stanchions.

REAL WESTERN rodeo action took place right in the middle of Tahquitz Drive early this morning when cowboys attempted to corral the two steers which kept police telephones buzzing during the early morning hours. Above, cowboy and horse, kept a taut rope on the steer as it kicks up its heels to get away.

FOUR COWBOYS, three on foot and one on horseback, "persuade" a steer into the van. The larger of the two required almost an hour before it was moved into the truck. The "impromptu rodeo" took place on Tahquitz Drive near the intersection of Palm Canyon Drive between one and 2:30 this morning.

Ike Warns of Government Controls If Needed to Stop Inflation Danger

New Gas Scare Reported Today In Reno, Nevada

RENO — Scent of deadly propane gas today forced a second evacuation of a downtown area near the scene of three explosions and a fire Tuesday which destroyed three buildings in fiery blasts.

Fire Chief Karl Evans ordered the evacuation of all buildings on South Virginia Street a block east of the scene of the disaster which killed two persons and injured 42 others. Another five persons are missing.

Officials of Sierra Pacific Power Co. were summoned to the area to determine whether the gas accumulation was dangerous and to find out if another main was leaking or whether it was residue from Tuesday blasts.

The explosions and ensuing fire destroyed three buildings and damaged at least a score of others.

Four Injured In 2-Car Crash Tuesday Night

Four persons, including two Palm Springs children, suffered minor injuries last night when two autos collided in a tail-end crash at Ramon Road, near San Luis Rey Drive.

Released after emergency treatment at Desert Hospital were Buddy Colburn 12, and his sister Judy, 14, of 3914 Calle San Raphael; Arthur C. King, 49, of Country Club Estates, and Charles R. Kendrick, 19, of Cathedral City.

The youngsters were passengers in an auto driven by Kendrick, the California Highway Patrol reported. King's auto rolled at least twice from the impact of the tail-end crash. Both cars were heading east.

France, Algeria Asked to 'Talk'

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The Afro-Asian bloc asked the United Nations today to "invite France and the people of Algeria" to start immediate negotiations to settle their North African troubles.

Eighteen members of the 27-nation group put a resolution containing this request before the general assembly's main political committee this morning.

Quarter Midget Track Passes Planning Hurdle

Riverside County Planning Commission yesterday afternoon initiated a variance for a quarter midget race track (for youngsters) to be located in Palm Desert.

The County Board of Supervisors will consider the setting of a public hearing on the variance at next Monday's meeting.

THE PROPOSED track is part of a recreation and sports center for youngsters of the area, and the little quarter midgets will be owned by the children who will race them on the new track.

According to Jack Cunningham of Palm Desert, the petitioner for the race track, the little racers travel about 25-miles-per-hour, are driven by children from 4 to 12 years old, and must meet stiff requirements in safety factors.

The cars are powered by a two-horse power motor and cost between $450 and $500.

THE PROPOSED track will be oval and measure 150 feet long, 24 feet wide, and have an infield 96 feet long.

The land for the track was given to the group by Cliff Henderson, pioneer Palm Desert developer, and a host of local people are donating their time to build the recreation area.

When the track is established, the group will become members of the quarter midget association, and will compete with other clubs throughout the southland.

According to Cunningham, as soon as the track is finished, the local men will start construction of bleachers on each side of the track.

White said both men denied any connection with a series of resort clouts, involving thousands of dollars worth of loot taken from Palm Springs autos since Christmas.

However, the detective said he had evidence that could possibly tie in the two young Marines with at least one other case of car looting.

Now awaiting Superior Court hearing, the Marines are being held in Riverside County Jail.

Planners Okeh Desert Rezoning

County Planning Commission yesterday afternoon approved a request by Philip Boyd to rezone 275 acres of land at Palm Desert for first class residential use.

The land is located near the Shadow Mountain Club about one-half mile south of Highway 111. Most of the land is owned by Boyd's firm, Deep Canyon Properties, and according to Tyler Suss, Boyd has negotiated with four owners for about 20 acres.

According to Commissioner L. C. Lewis, the request put the land in conformity with the planned zoning of this area.

Youth Council Urges Easter Week Action

Newly reorganized Palm Springs Coordinating Youth Council today proposed to other civic organizations in the Village that steps be taken to "discourage unchaperoned youth from coming to Palm Springs during Easter Week."

Contacted in regard to the yearly problem were the Chamber of Commerce, City Council, Police Department, Hotel and Apartment Association, and the Retail Merchants Association.

The group, in connection with Easter Week, adopted the planning of activities for youth during that period as one of its basic aims. Others were: Graduation activities, and the supervised use of school playgrounds and recreational facilities for children after school and on Saturdays.

George Scholl was named chairman of the group, succeeding C. Ronald Ellis, who assumed the chairmanship of the publicity committee. Mrs. C. C. Hutchens was elected secretary.

The group agreed to hold regular meetings on the second Wednesday of each month, from 4 to 5 p.m.

Plans Started For Scout Week Observance Here

Plans for the observance of National Boys Scout Week are being discussed today, by scout leaders in the Palm Springs area.

To be observed between today and February 12, the week will be highlighted by special scouts events and Boy Scout Sunday. Emphasis will be placed on the close of the first and successful year of the organization's four-year program, "onward for God and My Country," which seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to high spiritual ideals.

48 Pounds of Marijuana Seized

LOS ANGELES — Three men were held today after 49 pounds of marijuana, believed smuggled here from Mexico, was confiscated in a narcotics crackdown by federal agents.

Narcotics agents said Joaquin Ruiz, 31, of Mexico, and Ruben Sanedjas, 28, and Henry Palomino, 24, both of Los Angeles, were arraigned Tuesday on charges of possession and sales of narcotics.

Terms Use As 'Odious,' Not Aligned to American Way

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today that if inflation gets out of hand the government will have to impose controls which he considers odious.

The President made this statement at a news conference in which he also said the United States must step up oil shipments to Europe and that prospects for peace in the Middle East have been improved.

IF INFLATIONARY pressures continue, Mr. Eisenhower said, the United States would have to move in with controls which he finds not only odious but not representative of the present American way of life.

Mr. Eisenhower began the conference by announcing the resignation of Defense Mobilizer Arthur S. Flemming. He said he will nominate Assistant Defense Secretary Gordon Gray, former presidential aide of the University of North Carolina, as Flemming's successor.

THE PRESIDENT'S discussion of inflation was touched of by a reporter's reference to his State of the Union Message. In that message, Mr. Eisenhower urged business and labor leaders "to think well of their responsibility to the American people" before demanding price and wage increases.

Failure "to discipline ourselves" would produce pressure on the government to "redress the failure" and "by that process freedom will step by step disappear."

TODAY HE ADDED that if business and labor do not exercise economic self discipline, the government would have to move in with controls. In that event, he said this would not be the United States we now know.

Asked if he considers recent oil price hikes as unjustified from a standpoint of their possible effect on inflation, the President said he had not seen a study of oil prices or discussed them in any detail with Flemming.

ASKED ABOUT comparative military strengths of this country and Russia, the President said the United States had developed weapons to the point where it is as strong as it ever has been in time of peace.

He conceded that the United States had not reached the stage it would like on long range missiles. But he said short range missile performance is improved.

Asked about the possibility of a Soviet attack, he almost exploded. Such likelihood grows less every year, he said, adding that any military adventure today is just another way of committing suicide.

Driver of the other car was Betsy J. McKinney, of 615 Mountain View.

YOUTH THROWN FROM CAR BY CRASH IMPACT

A seven-year-old boy suffered minor head injuries when he was hurled from an auto by the impact of a two-car crash at San Antonio Drive and Evelita Road last night.

The boy, Buddy A. Huff, passenger in a car driven by his mother Mrs. Florence H. Huff, 4034 Calle San Raphael, received head bruises and abrasions when he fell from the car when it was reportedly struck in the rear by a second auto.

AFL-CIO Warns 3 Labor Unions To 'Clean House'

MIAMI BEACH — Three big labor unions have been ordered to clean house within 90 days or get out of the AFL-CIO.

The federation's Executive Council Tuesday night accused the unions, with memberships totaling 170,000, of being "dominated, controlled and substantially influenced by corrupt influences."

THE COUNCIL told the three unions they must rid themselves of officials involved in welfare fund abuses in order to remain in the AFL-CIO. The unions denied the accusations and criticized the council action.

The unions are the Laundry Workers International, the Distillery, Rectifying the Wine Workers International, and the Allied Industrial Workers.

THE COUNCIL planned to wind up its conference today. First, however, it will take up several important matters, including a jurisdictional dispute between the Steelworkers Union and the Sheet Metal Workers.

Union leaders indicated, however, that the long-standing jurisdictional feud between craft and industrial unions within the AFL-CIO probably would not be settled at the conference.

AFL-CIO PRESIDENT George Meany said that each of the three accused unions "expressed a desire to cooperate and clean up." The charges grew out of Senate investigations two years ago. "I hope they will," Meany said, "but I can assure you... if they don't comply completely and fully they will be suspended. That is the unanimous feeling of the council."

In another action Tuesday, the Executive Council upheld Meany's action in expelling Charles Nadeo, executive of a Philadelphia Can Workers local, and suspending the local's other officers. All were accused of improper management of union affairs.

U.S. Steps Up Fast-Moving Drive to Win Arab Support

WASHINGTON — The United States today stepped up its fast-moving drive to win new Arab support and understanding for President Eisenhower's plan to protect the Middle East from Communism.

The President was scheduled to confer on the plan this morning with the third Arab leader to visit him within a week—Foreign Minister Charles Malh of Lebanon.

MR. EISENHOWER already has won endorsements in principle of his plan from the two other Arabian officials visiting in Washington—King Saud of Saudi Arabia and Crown Prince Abdul Illah of Iraq.

Those two leaders, who do not always see eye to eye, planned an important meeting of their own late today at the President's guest house across the street from the White House.

MALIK, GENERALLY regarded as pro-Western, endorsed the "Eisenhower Doctrine" some time ago but wanted to get more details on the proposal from the President and to discuss Middle East problems with him.

Soviet Economic Plan Viewed As Sign of Trouble

MOSCOW — Qualified observers viewed the Soviet Union's 1957 economic plan today as a frank admission the Russian economic system is running into difficulties.

One diplomat said the plan submitted to the opening meeting of the Supreme Soviet Tuesday showed the United States does not have as much to worry about Russian competition as it thought.

"THE RUSSIANS are not finding it as easy as they thought" to catch up to the United States production capacities, he said.

Maikhal A. Pervukhin, the man who was given the job of revamping the Soviet economic plan a month ago, presented a report which called for a one-third cut in the rate of Russia's industrial expansion.

THIS REDUCTION was regarded here as the most significant since World War II.

He said industry should be expanded 7.1 per cent. Industry was increased 11 per cent last year.

He explained the government had decided on more modest goals to avoid "excessive strain" in trying to achieve them.

Soviet Finance Minister Arseni Zverev told the Supreme Soviet that the 1957 arms budget would be cut about six per cent from 1956. He said this was made possible by a cut in Soviet armed forces.

Rites for 'Conky' Conkwright Set For Friday, Feb. 8

Funeral services will be held Friday for Arthur Bliss "Conky" Conkwright, 75, well-known resort personality who died suddenly Saturday night after being stricken with a heart attack while photographing the Golden Nugget Ball.

Services will be held at 10 a.m., Friday, at Wiefels and Son Chapel, with Dr. James Blackstone, of the Palm Springs Community Church, officiating. Burial will follow in the new Palm Springs Cemetery.

Conky, once a legendary figure during the 1920's in New York, was a familiar figure in the resort city. His famous Polaroid camera recorded the antics of village personalities for several years.

Twenty Deaths In Air Crash Caused by Fire

NEW YORK — The twenty passengers killed in the crash of a Northeast Airlines plane Friday died of burns and not from injuries received in the crash, a medical report showed Tuesday.

Dr. Milton Helsen, chief city medical examiner, said "not one died of injuries from the impact of the crash." He said if there "hadn't been a fire not a single death would have occurred."

Helsen said after autopsies performed on all the victims that fire generated carbon monoxide, rendered the passengers unconscious and they were unable to escape the flames.

Nearly all the 81 survivors were injured and most suffered burns when the DCA cracked up on Rikers Island minutes after it took off from LaGuardia Airport in a snowstorm.

Teams of Civil Aeronautics board experts continued to examine wreckage and gather information for a public hearing on the disaster to be held in two or three weeks.

It takes nearly 10 per cent of the total U. S. labor force, or five million workers, to get food from the farmer to the consumer. This labor bill in 1955 cost $32 billion.

Stassen Says 'No Intention' Of Resigning

WASHINGTON — Harold E. Stassen, presidential disarmament adviser, says he has no intention of resigning.

The resignation question was raised by reporters as Stassen left the White House Tuesday after conferring with President Eisenhower concerning the March meeting of the U.N. Disarmament Subcommittee.

Stassen said recently he believed the Republicans might have regained control of Congress if Vice President Richard M. Nixon had not been on the 1956 ticket.

Asked if his statement on Nixon came up at the White House, Stassen said "no, we discussed our continuing efforts to achieve a durable peace in the age of the H-bomb."

Asked if there was any truth to recurrent reports that he planned to resign, Stassen said, "No, of course not. I am continuing on with the work that the President asked me to do."

Actress Sues Magazine for $2 Million Libel

HOLLYWOOD — Actress-singer Dorothy Dandridge accused Hep magazine in a $2 million libel damage suit today of referring to her as having "1,000 lovers" and linking her with men she has never met.

Miss Dandridge filed suit Tuesday against the magazine's publishers and distributors, charging false and malicious assertions were made about her in last month's issue of Hep.

She referred to a story titled "Dorothy Dandridge — Her '1,000 Lovers,'" which, she said, imputed a laxity of moral character and habits to her and subjected her to contempt, ridicule, humiliation and embarrassment.

London Fans 'Rock 'n Roll' With Arrival of 'King' Haley

LONDON — Police called reinforcements into central London today to forestall new teenage riots of joy at the presence of American rock 'n' roll king Bill Haley.

Haley arrived Tuesday for a three week tour of Britain and ran into scenes of frenzied adoration that injured one person and badly damaged his car. It took the efforts of 50 policemen to free him.

HE GIVES HIS first concert at London's Dominion Theater tonight and a spokesman at Tottenham Court Road police station across the street said reinforcements were being drafted to handle the situation.

"We don't want any trouble," a police spokesman said.

Haley expressed the same sentiments at a press conference Tuesday night. He admitted he and his wife had been badly frightened when the mob surged around the car, crushing a police woman.

BUT HALEY TOLD the news conference he was convinced rock and roll has no greater effect on juvenile delinquency than any other kind of music.

"It was just fabulous" said an article under his byline in the tabloid Daily Mirror.

"What else can I say?" The Daily Mirror chartered a special train to bring Haley and 400 fans up to London from Southampton Tuesday. Haley also was mobbed in Southampton when he debarked from the Queen Elizabeth.

WHATEVER HALEY couldn't say the newspaper said for him. The arrival of the Chester, Pa., musician and his Comets made

Nash Murder Trial Started

LOS ANGELES — Stephen Nash, 33, confessed killer of 11 persons, went on trial today for the murder of a 19-year-old Venice boy and a Long Beach beauty college student.

The transient truck driver was indicted last Dec. 6 by the county Grand Jury for the Nov. 29 murder of Larry Rice under the Santa Monica Pier and for slaying John W. Berg, 27, two days earlier.

Nash, described by authorities as a sex psychopath, also has been indicted on murder charges by the San Francisco County Grand Jury. Nash boasted to police of committing several murders in Northern California. One of his alleged victims was found in a car which was pulled from San Francisco Bay.

"A STRANGE AND cooling feeling" is the sensation Baby Doll (Carol Baker) describes to the "stranger" (Eli Wallach) in a scene from the Elia Kazan production, "Baby Doll," reportedly author Tennessee Williams' boldest. The picture, recommended adult entertainment, is showing at the Village Theatre.

High School Highlights

By TERRY THOMPSON

Here are the happenings at Palm Springs High School of the past week.

Last Monday and Tuesday the Junior Class received their class jackets and sweaters. The jackets and sweaters are turquoise with white seams and their emblem is in the shape of an arrowhead with "PS" and "58" in red. At the top of the arrowhead is placed a peace pipe.

The "Sweetheart's Ball" has been selected as the theme for the annual Girls League Dance to be held on Feb. 9 at the Youth Center from 8 to 12 p.m. The price will be $1.50 per couple and 75 cents stag at this semi-formal dance.

AFTER THE FEB. 19 class meetings the new campus cleanup contest will begin. Each class will be responsible for a certain part of the campus, and it will be scored according to how clean it is each day. The seniors will take care of the quad; the juniors, the front of school; the sophomores the area behind rooms 7 through 11, and the freshmen will be in charge of the patio and lawn to the east. At the end of the school year the class with the most points will receive a trophy.

Last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the high school students were caught racking their little brains for the first semester final exams which lasted for 90 minutes each.

THE HIGH SCHOOL newspaper will have a car wash on Feb. 16 at Kenny Paul's Service Station located at the north end of Palm Canyon. The car wash will last from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to raise money for more issues of the school paper. The car wash will cost $1.50, and a lubrication job will be offered at a reduced rate of $1.75. Come out and give us your support so we can have more issues of the school newspaper.

On Sunday, Feb. 24, six high school students from the science class will appear on channel 13, KCOP from 9 to 9:30 a.m. Robert E. Bourquin, general science teacher, will present a show entitled "Who Knows This?" to be sponsored by the California Teachers' Association. The six students to be on the television show are Judy Dineen, Bob Fey, Frank Ripley, JoJo Rosin, Sue Rolapp and Erik Williams.

THE LETTERMEN'S Club has clamped down on trouble makers since the boy's lavatory was vandalized in early January. From now on there will be two lettermen from their gym class stationed in the boy's lavatory every period, between classes, and during the lunch hour. The lettermen will be there to prevent the boys from smoking, loitering and talking.

The fight for the Riverside County League Sportsmanship Trophy was under way with the beginning of the '57 basketball campaign. During football season the Beaumont Cougars won the RCL sportsmanship, and they will be out to win it again in basketball.

SPORTSMANSHIP IS graded on the behavior of the team, rooters and coach. This also includes cooperation with cheerleaders, conduct in the stands, and booing the officials.

The Palm Springs Band, Drill Team and Majorettes made an excellent showing among other bands at the annual Rodeo Parade held last Saturday. They also played for special events at the Rodeo.

Last, but not least, Palm Springs High will recess on Feb. 12 and 22 to observe Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays.

Cars Are Marked, Supervisors Told

In response to a board request last week that he make a check on what county cars are now marked with insignia showing them to be county property, County Administrative Officer Clay Begole told the supervisors this week that there are county insignia decals on all county cars except those having reason for not wanting them. He said a resolution was adopted by the board March 3, 1952 requiring the insignia.

The Grand Jury had urged that county cars be marked.

Constable Aid To Be Studied

The supervisors asked the county administrative officer this week to study a recommendation by the Grand Jury that they establish the position of co-ordinator to assist constables in the operation of their offices, and to report back to them on his findings.

Desert Council Fails in 'Tax Land' Mission Before County Supervisors

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (AP)—Edward Wall told police that someone cut down two trees in his yard. What really burned him up was that the vandals used his axe to do the job.

A group appearing before the county board of supervisors this week with Harry C. James of the Desert Protective Council as spokesman to urge that acquisition by the Federal Government of tax deeded lands within the boundaries of Joshua Tree National Monument be approved, was told by County Counsel Ray Sullivan, Jr. that the matter is out of the board's hands.

Sullivan said that several thousands of acres of tax deeded lands have been acquired by the Federal Government and that many sales have been made by the county to individuals without the knowledge that the U.S. Government had possessed the property. He said the county is now seeking an award in order to reimburse the people to whom the county gave tax deeds.

Hot Feet
HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—After falling three stories, Richard Brewer, a window washer, complained only that "the bottoms of my feet are sore." He landed upright on soft turf.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Look What's Happened

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Defense Secretary Charles Wilson has a heavy hand, but he often uses it to write the truth in big, bold characters. I'm not referring here to his crack about draft-dodging recruits to the National Guards.

What he said may be true, but it's not nearly so important as many other things he said before the House Armed Services Committee. He raised in my mind the question of whether American military might is shaping the world in our image, or shaping the United States into some alien form, or both.

FOR EXAMPLE, the American ideal has always been that of a military establishment as small as possible. The Founding Fathers had good reason to fear the results of a large standing army, and this distrust has continued in American minds. Well, what's happened? Because of us, the British are cutting their military garrisons everywhere. With those American divisions in NATO and the U.S. Air Force basing its atom bombers in England, Great Britain doesn't need as much defense. She is withdrawing several units from West Europe and demobilizing a number of reserve groups.

It's a funny way for America to be reshaping the world with peace-loving American ideals, but there you are. Britain is by no means the only lucky nation which is cutting down military expenditures. France is able to do this because of the sheltering arm of the United States.

WEST GERMANY, once the Prussian's delight, has become so peaceful under American care and protection that the young German's compulsory military service is merely for one year. The government which follows Chancellor Adenauer may even eliminate that. All over the world, wherever American military might permits it, the natives are keeping their boys at home and saving their money instead of buying arms.

Secretary Wilson didn't say this, but it was the picture he painted. He did note that the sacrifice which the United States makes to supply soldier-boys is greater than in any other free world nation.

Our general population is rising about 11.2 per cent a year. But the population in the 18-24 year age group has dropped by 5.8 per cent since 1950. Infants and older persons live longer because standards of medical care are very high. One result is that in order to put 2.3 million persons into military uniform, we are drawing more heavily on our youth supply than is generally known.

OTHER NATIONS, by keeping their boys at home and their money out of wasteful military hardware, are following the American peace-loving ideal. And what about America herself? Have we lost some freedom of choice about the size of our military establishment?

Mr. Wilson gave a plain affirmative answer to this one. There was a staff study, he said, on the possibility of reducing military personnel by 300,000 over a three-year period. It was a dandy idea by our own ideals and by the example of Britains and other allied nations. But Secretary Wilson found it "not justified considering the present international situation . . . (it) would have an impact abroad which the Free World could ill afford."

THAT ISN'T ALL. Just as we have very little freedom of choice about cutting our forces, so we have very little choice about adding to them. A sudden increase of our military budget . . . Mr. Wilson told the committee, "would be . . . misunderstood all over the world." He explained under questioning that an increase would alarm Russia and might precipitate a war — and this we are dead against.

So evidently we are pinioned to a certain military posture. We are forbidden by our friends to relax and by our enemies to make a threatening move. As a result of necessity, we have set out to make military careers more attractive than the Founding Fathers ever contemplated to American youth.

BY WAGE HIKES and fringe benefits Mr. Wilson's regime has lifted the GI reenlistment rate from 24 per cent to 44 per cent; has increased the ratio of reserve officers who stay in the service from 1 out of 6 to 1 out of 4; has "slowly increased" the numbers of young doctors and dentists content to stay in the services.

How the Founding Fathers would hate it! American military policy now makes foreigners more peace-loving and makes Americans more reconciled to living in an armed camp. We didn't, heaven knows, plan it that way—but there it is.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Cara Goes Blonde

HOLLYWOOD — Redheaded Cara Williams Barrymore went blonde for the Texas Guinan role in "The Jazz Age" . . . No Clutter Dept: Frank Lloyd Wright visited in the Hollywood Hills, looked around disgustedly and muttered, "You should have a sale, Anne." Next day Miss Baxter got rid of her whatnots.

Kyle Crichton's description of Walter Pidgeon's cavorting in "The Happiest Millionaire": "His voice has the resonance of a cowbell in an empty beer barrel . . . M-G-M has optioned the Pidgeon play, a Broadway smash, which means another $250,000 for Crichton, who wrote it."

A major studio publicity panderer talked a star's wife out of suing for divorce. The press agent's reasoning: "Honey, if you divorce him your social standing will suffer and you'll never ever get a good table again at Chasen's."

IN HER NEXT Broadway play, "Miss Isobel," Shirley Booth will play a doll who regresses from 65 to 6 . . . Bob Hope looked around at the 850 smiling faces gathered in the Ambassador Hotel's Embassy Room for the Cedars of Lebanon banquet in his honor and cracked, "I am glad I came—last year I turned down one of these benefits and the next day I found my car in front of a synagogue in Hollywood with Arabian license plates on it!"

AS OTHER EDITORS
VIEW THE NEWSSENATOR BORAH WAS WRONG
(Dove Creek (Colo.) Press)

In an earlier era, it seems clear, the advocates of the federal income tax had no conception of the extent to which it would grow—and the tremendous portion it would take from the earnings of the people.

In defending this tax, the late Senator Borah once said: "The great and honored lawyer, Joseph Choate, denounced such a tax as socialistic. He said that if you can levy a tax of 2 per cent, you may lay a tax of 50 per cent or a 100 per cent."

"Who will lay the tax of 50 per cent or a 100 per cent?"

"Whose equity, sense of fairness, of justice, of patriotism, does he question?"

"Why the representatives of the American people—not only that, but the intelligence, the fairness, the justice of the people themselves, to whom their representatives are always answerable."

Senator Borah was a famous and able man, but in this case he could hardly have been more wrong. An income tax of 50 per cent now applies at levels which are far from great wealth. And in the top bracket the tax is 91 per cent—only 9 per cent short of the total expropriation that Joseph Choate feared.

Moreover, even in relatively modest brackets, the tax collector hits very hard. Taxes, direct and indirect, account for about one-third of a $7,500 annual income. And a man earning $85 a week works more hours to pay his taxes than to pay for his food and clothing combined.

Medical reports say
That chests are fast growing
Throughout the entire U.S.
But the growth of the Chest
In Palm Springs is slowing Give now so that none will have less.

Time to remind you that unless you do your share to help fill the Community Chest, some of the worthy organizations which depend on it to bolster their annual budget to do good, will not have as much to work with.

It's for many a worthwhile cause, you know.

WE HAD A SORT of unusual family event over the weekend. It might be news, so will explain.

For the first time since the summer of 1951, at Laguna Beach we had the entire family under one roof. Dr. John, the oldest boy, and his wife, were out from Chicago where he's an important cog in the working of Presbyterian Hospital, to attend a medical convention on the coast. They stopped over for three days en route home.

So it was an occasion and the office kindly permitted the old Emeritus to enjoy having them all in the same place at the same time.

WITH COMPLETION of the Banning and Colton by-passes on Highway 60-70-99 and the rapid progress of the Freeway east from Los Angeles, only a few slow spots remain on the highway. And another of these is going to be eliminated soon.

In Redlands they are in a haste now on the route of the Highway to by-pass the business area. The state wants to go right through the main part of Redlands and Redlands wants the highway to traverse San Timoteo canyon. Business men are apparently of the opinion that they do not derive much profit from through traffic and that the snarl in the travelers. That removal of the through traffic will make more room for the local people who want to shop.

TO US, DOWN HERE, the important thing is to build the by-pass. That will leave only one business district to buck between Palm Springs and Los Angeles—Beaumont.

Those drivers who used to brag they made Los Angeles in three hours will soon seem as slow as snails.

You won't have to exceed the speed limit to make Los Angeles in under two hours when there are no stop lights or local traffic to impede you.

REMEMBER, one year, when for six solid weeks it was perfect weather here from Monday to Friday and rained on Saturdays and Sundays? That was the time this column suggested that we change the weekend to Wednesdays and Thursdays.

The Hotel men have the same idea. Note where they set the seasons for Palm Springs as—Winter, December 15 to May 1, Spring, May 1 to July 1, Summer July 1 to October 1 and Fall from October 1 to December 15.

Not according to the almanac, but good.

Have just one comment more on the weather. Like Einstein said, everything is relative. When it's inclement here, it's much more inclement other places. Figure it on a comparative basis—you can't lose in Palm Springs.

INEZ ROBB:

Adams Blocks Reality of War

LONDON — The harsh realities of the Suez crisis, petrol rationing, inflation and other morose and major issues with which the English are grappling this winter have been mercifully blotted out by Dr. John Bodkin Adams.

These grievous straits are forgotten for the moment in the national preoccupation with the possibility that the country has another distinguished mass-murderer on its hands. At all odds, the Magistrates Court at Eastbourne, the rich, old fashioned seaside resort where the doctor practiced for more than 30 years, has remanded him for trial for "wilful murder" of at least one of the wealthy old patients whose happy custom it was to remember him substantially in their wills.

OLD BAILEY, the most famous prison both in British fact and fiction, will provide the historic backdrop for this trial. The pudgy, moon-faced doctor will stand in a court that descends from the one in which the surviving judges, who condemned Charles I to death, were tried after the Restoration in 1660, and in which Jack Sheppard, the most famous of all English highway robbers, was sentenced to hang in 1724.

(If you would read a graphic description of Old Bailey, pull Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities" from the bookcase, and reread Charles's trial for treason.)

THE CROWN, i. e. the prosecution, had its days in court during the magistrates hearing in Eastbourne (a hearing that, for lack of a more concise parallel, can only be compared to a grand jury hearing in the United States.) The circumstantial evidence offered may not be so damning, in the opinion of many experts, once the defense can present its own witnesses at Old Bailey.

Oddly enough, it seems a fairly common practice for a well-to-do British patient to leave his doctor a bequest. This often replaces the regular payment of a doctor's bills over a course of months or years, and is tacitly agreed upon between doctor and patient.

UNDER BRITISH law, a bequest is not subject to the same crushing taxation that would be imposed on a comparable sum collected by a doctor during the course of treatment and listed as income. In fact, both principals benefit. The patient has the use of the income from the bequest until death do him part from it, and the doctor, in the long run, gets a tax-free gift.

The fact Dr. Adams inherited money and substantial gifts from grateful patients probably would not in itself, have brought him to the prisoner's dock. It was the medical circumstances, rather than the bequests, that roused suspicions.

IN EASTBOURNE, where Dr. Adams was a most popular family physician, estimates of his fortune run as high as 250,000 pounds, or $700,000, a splendid sum for a practitioner who came here from Belfast with scarcely an extra pound in his pocket. His home, Kent Lodge, at 6 Trinity Trees, in one of Eastbourne's excellent residential neighborhoods, is a tribute to Dr. Adams' taste and substance. A large, comfortable two-story house of pale gray stone, its front door is painted a cheerful shade of green. Wide, shallow bay windows hang with immaculate curtains flung the door and are duplicated on the second floor.

BUT SUBSTANTIAL as is his house, it cannot hold a candle to that of the late Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, 81, with whose murder the doctor is specifically charged.

The late Mrs. Morrell's home, Marden Ash, is a very large manor house of white stucco on a high point of land commanding a beautiful view of the sea on one side and rolling, green downs on the other.

She was typical of the elderly women who haunt Eastbourne, and who doted on the doctor. Indeed, many still dote. They have not deserted him in prison, as voluminous fan mail, even now that he is remanded for trial, plainly shows.

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Here's a story I must repeat in this column. One which I believe may start you to thinking each reader with his own individual reaction. The reaction of which I write will depend upon all, not part, of the life we have led. What our ambitions were when we first started out in the world and how we have lived up to the present day.

The couple beside whom I was sitting was in the fifties, no less. The husband perhaps five or six years older. He was white haired with deep lines etched into his face. She was plumpish, serious of mind but a bit fluttery, and quite happy with her surroundings at the hotel where they were paying no less than $40 per day.

"YOU KNOW," THE husband said, and I'm going to call him Jim although that's not really his name. "You know, I'm a bit envious of you," he said to me. "Why," I asked amazed, "should you be envious of me?" "Well, I remember a long time ago when Alice and I first got started in life as a married couple."

"Well," Alice interjected, "I should think you would! After all, Jim, we have been celebrating our wedding anniversary for years now. One time in Rome. In Paris, London, Chicago, New York City, and now we will soon be celebrating our anniversary right here in Palm Springs."

"YES, MY DEAR," he answered. "And that's just the very thing that has started me thinking about this young man sitting beside us." I thanked him for the young man compliment and listened as he continued to talk.

"I remember our first anniversary," Jim recalled. "It was in a cold water flat in New York City and I didn't mind the three flights of stairs I had to climb after my day of work. You know it was kinda fun climbing those stairs. I haven't climbed a staircase from one floor to another for more than 30 years now. I probably couldn't stand the exertion today."

JIM CONTINUED nostalgically: All his life he fought tooth and nail to reach the top — financially, that is and he did. What he said in the story that he recited was the fun he and Alice had when they were young and struggling for a foothold economically.

EARL WILSON:

A Dentist and His Patient

NEW YORK—I'm sure you love your dentist. You wish him luck. You even hope he eventually gets my money.

I love my dentist. (Mine's female.)

Anyway, there's a Philadelphia dentist who's about to throw his patients' canceled appointments back in their teeth. Dr. Harold Katz, D.D.S., has hit it big as the composer of Ethel Merman's "Happy Hunting." He and the lyricist, Matt Dubey, a dental patient, now have so many of their songs recorded that Dr. Katz can call his patients and tell them when they can see him.

In fact, I canceled an appointment with a patient today to see you," Dr. Katz who uses the name of Harold Karr in his song-writing, apprised me.

WHAT ABOUT THE poor man's choppers?" I asked.

"Well, I left him with a temporary filling," he said.

"The way it started," the one-time dentist said, "was that I taught piano and played in orchestras, and practiced dentistry to make a living."

"And HE"—indicating Dubey—"was a piano pupil of mine."

"And you gave me up as a bad student," confessed Dubey. The lyric-writing bug got Dubey while he was going to the University of Miami. He sent some words back to his dentist, begging for lyrics.

THEY COMPOSED a night club act. They tore of a whole bookful of songs, and then put them together in what they call a "hypothetical show score"—about a dozen songs.

Plugging producers and song-publishers, they'd plead for a "demo"—Tin Pan Alley for "demonstration."

If they caught a guy in the lobby and he mentioned there was no piano in the lobby—or hadn't they noticed?—they'd say "Our music's so simple you don't need a piano."

Success came suddenly. Flown to Hollywood one day to audition for MGM, they were offered a contract, but had to fly back to audition for Ethel Merman who said, "If you'll rewrite 'I'm a Funny Guy' into 'I'm a Funny Dame,' you've got a deal."

"WE HAD A STAR," a producer, two song writers and no story!" they said.

Amazingly, "Ifen," "Mutual Admiration Society," "New Fangled Tango" and several other songs which became hits in the show were in that "hypothetical show."

Some people say they may be the new Rodgers and Hammerstein. They go to the R & H law-

"I worked day and night. Alice worked too in the beginning. But it was exciting during those days long ago when we worried about the rent. Where our next meal was coming 'cause we were afraid the grocer would ask for that long delayed bill. It was really exciting as I look back now, to worry about when off would go the electric lights in our flat because the bill had not been paid."

"We used to go down to the corner drug store and divide a bottle of pop. That was a big deal for us in those days and quite a treat. Motion picture shows. Why, we just couldn't afford to go more than once or twice a month. And when we did it was splurging."

"I DON'T BELIEVE Alice and I could take all of that again today. But the reason I am telling you this story, Bill, is: did we miss a lot of fun in life? Was I blind to all that went on swirling about me — life and color and just plain living in my mad scramble for the dollar? I think we did. But there's no going back now and I really don't want to go back either. But it was so much fun in those days as compared to sitting here beside this magnificent swimming pool in these lush surroundings."

"Jim," said Alice, "how silly you talk. Why we're just having a grand time here. Don't let that young reporter go away with the impression that we are dissatisfied with the service we are getting here, and this town of Palm Springs filled with such lovely people. I saw the loveliest dress at one of your stores. I must see it again."

"YES, MY DEAR Alice. Yes I'm sure Mr. Rashall will not leave with that impression," and Jim smiled at me with a knowing wink. Mr. Rashall and I are going to have a most stimulating concoction by an expert. Will you join us, Alice?

She declined because of that appointment at the beauty parlor and, of course, there was that dress too.

Not much of a story, I suppose. But it got me to thinking. I've had a lot of fun during my life. I've lived amid all those exciting things about the butcher's bill, the grocer's and the rent and the telephone bill. Exciting, did I say?

I must be crazy in the head. Give me that million instead. How about you.

For advice, but you can be sure that Dubey doesn't go to R & H's dentist.

"He still goes to me," said Dr. Karr. "The trouble is, I'm terribly busy lately writing music for his lyrics."

"So what's the condition of his teeth?" I demanded.

"Same as everybody," he replied. "He, too, has a temporary filling."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The wife who sued Martha Raye over Patrolman O'Shea's affections (and got a settlement) has gone back to clerking in a Westport bank . . . Aly Khan arrived quietly from Caracas (without Bettina) and went to the Carlton . . . Rex Harrison, while out of "Fair Lady," will live in Terrence Rattigan's house in Hollywood, play golf, and probably visit San Francisco "because I always wanted to see it" . . . California champagne with plastic corks which pop very loud were introduced at the Waldorf. Ooh, what those French vintners'll say!

At the Theater Wing's $50-a-plate "Command Performance," Oscar Hammerstein explained, "The show was commanded by a fellow who said 'If I gotta pay $50 for a ticket, I think I should have a show with it' . . ."

Connie Moore, the beautiful singer, landed the hottest spot for the first week of the new Tonight! TVer . . . A big Hollywood star is in big trouble with a youth group . . . Just married: Steve Allen's manager, Jules Green, and Nancy Stern . . . Oh, Elvis! Bettie Page, the pinup girl, will soon make $3,000-a-week, as "Tennessee's answer to Lili St. Cyr."

BILL MILLER sold his share of the Dunnes Hotel in Las Vegas . . . The Mills Bros. and Dinah Washington subbed for Ella Fitzgerald, out of the Nat Cole show with a busted appendix . . . At El Morocco: Yul Brynner with Nancy Berg and the Anatole Litvaks . . . If Jackie Gleason's looking for his '57 license plates ("J. G."), agent Joe Glaser got 'em by mistake . . . Maresa Stegman, pretty Latin 1/4 show gal, sings for hospitalized GIs.

Singer Alan Dale signed his 12th manager . . . A multi-million dollar deal's cooking for Florist Telegraphic Delivery to join Diners Club . . . Jeanette MacDonald's in a San Francisco hospital . . . The Egyptian gov't asked the Italians to make Farouk take the Egyptian royal crest off his car . . . Basin Street has shuttered for good, but the neon sign's still burning nightly.

Anne Boleyn Play Opens Thursday

Thirty-one people who enjoy acting as a hobby, will appear in the cast of "Anne of the Thousand Days" when it opens at Riverside's Community Playhouse on February 7, for a nine-night run. These 31 people, whose vocations range from school boys to psychologists, have backgrounds of thorough training in the theatrical arts.

Anne Markin will direct this large cast in the Maxwell Anderson saga and her husband Isadore Markin, as technical director, will coordinate the efforts of approximately another 30 people who are the technical staff.

The play deals with the story of Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn. The arrogant imperious king, convinced of the divine rightness of everything he chooses to do, finds a well-matched antagonist in Anne, who is romantic, shrewd, proud, with a woman's kind of pride, and willing to destroy herself rather than to compromise with her own integrity. The struggle between them is resolved by Henry's decision to send Anne to her death unless she relinquishes her daughter Elizabeth's claim to the throne.

The Riverside Community Playhouse is located at 4026 14th St., in Riverside. All seats for the play are reserved and reservations may be made by calling Box Office. Overland 6-4030, between 6 and 8 p.m. The theatre is dark on Sunday.

Party Honors Frank Bogerts

Bob and Andrea Leeds Howard's newly inaugurated Sunday Buffet at their fashionable Howard Manor Sunday night found Frank Bogert, who has just resigned as manager of the El Mirador Hotel, and his wife celebrating Frank's new assignment.

Ed Hamilton, business associate of Desi Arnaz, hosted a party honoring Bogert on becoming general manager of the new Desi Arnaz Western Hill Lodge, which is nearing completion at Indian Wells. Others in the party were Hank and Bill Green, of Fort Worth and Charles Bliss, of Tulsa.

Guadalupe's Annual Fiesta February 9-10

Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church on the Indian Reservation will hold its annual Fiesta on February 9-10.

There will be fun and frolic and food, according to Mrs. James B. Fleming and Father Bernard Sheerin, who are in charge.

Mexican food, prepared by the best Mexican cooks on the Reservation, including tacos and enchiladas, will be served both days, and on Sunday there will be a ham dinner.

There will be a record booth, country store, Valentine candy booth, white elephants, and a parcel post booth, which will be stocked with interesting packages postmarked from far places . . . and some of them are from name personalities.

The Fiesta is from 1-10 p.m. on Saturday, and opens an hour earlier on Sunday.

Play Benefits Parent-Guild

Tonight and tomorrow night proceeds from the play "My Sister Eileen" currently showing at the Jewish Community Center, will go to the Nellie Coffman Junior High School Parent Guild, it was announced today by Mrs. Helen Morris, Guild president. A special admission price of $1 will be charged these two nights.

All parents are urged to attend as proceeds will go toward furnishing band uniforms for the school. The play begins at 8:30 p.m. and tickets may be purchased at the door or at Nellie Coffman Junior High.

WAIF Chapter Meets Tomorrow

Palm Springs Chapter of WAIF will meet tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the home of their founder-president Mrs. W. B. Malouf at 279 Via Las Palmas.

Flying here from New York to meet with the group will be Bill Kirk of WAIF-ISS, who will explain the methods of WAIF, and how International Social Service works, cost of screening prospective parents, and other organizational data.

INSPECTION TOUR—Mrs. Jonas Bienenfeld (right) of 540 Via Lola, Palm Springs, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Bienenfeld, look on as Philip Bienenfeld, 5, tests new equipment in Ida Mayer Cummings' Medical Center at Los Angeles Jewish Home for the Aged. Philip is the newest life member of the auxiliary, which is sponsoring its annual Charity Ball on Sunday night, Feb. 10, in Los Angeles' Biltmore Bowl.

Mrs. Machris To Receive New Honor

Mrs. Elsinore Machris of Palm Springs, and Los Angeles shoe manufacturer Harry Karl will receive the 1957 awards for philanthropy Sunday night, February 10, when the Junior Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Jewish Home for the Aged holds its 28th annual Charity Ball in Los Angeles' Biltmore Bowl.

Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin will present Mrs. Machris with the coveted "Star of David" award, while Karl will receive the "Golden Mezzuzah," according to Mrs. Ida Mayer Cummings, president of the auxiliary.

Serving as co-chairmen of the ball with Mrs. Adolph Weinberg are Mrs. Jonas Bienenfeld of 540 Via Lola, Palm Springs, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Bienenfeld. In honor of the occasion, they have just made the junior Mrs. Bienenfeld's five-year-old son, Philip, a life member of the auxiliary.

Proceeds of the ball go toward support of the Jewish Home for the Aged in Los Angeles and its new Ida Mayer Cummings Medical Center. Named in honor of the auxiliary president, the medical center is located in the home's Mary Pickford Building and will soon have a $25,000 elevator installed through the generosity of Miss Marion Davies, a trustee of the organization.

Key officials on the ball committee include Miss Pickford and Mrs. Harry Warner, while Louis B. Mayer, brother of Mrs. Cummings, will be host of the evening, and Zsa Zsa Gabor and Agnes Moorehead will serve as hostesses.

Greetings to the guests have already been received from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, auxiliary life members, as well as from Governor Knight and Los Angeles Mayor Poulson.

Junior Women To Hear About South Africa

Mrs. Mina Kelsey will speak on her interesting experiences in South Africa, when the Palm Springs Federated Junior Women's Club holds its membership meeting in the Theater Building at El Mirador Hotel on Tuesday evening, February 12 at 8 p.m. sharp.

All regular members are urged to bring any guests who would be interested in becoming members of the recently-organized Junior Women's Club.

Members and their guests enjoyed an evening of playing cards in the Auxiliary Room at the Legion Hall on January 29. High scorer at canasta was Mrs. Porter E. Smith, while Mrs. Ted Griffith had high score at bridge. Cakes baked by the members were served with coffee.

Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reid hosted around 100 guests at a Sunday night dinner at the Tennis Club, with most of the guests from Smoke Tree Ranch.

The dinner honored Mrs. Della Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burritt and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rounds.

Winter Visitors Gathering

Oasis Hotel's lobby again is filled with the winter gathering assembled around the fireplace. This chatty group, which meets there after breakfast and again before dinner during the cocktail hour, includes the C. Eugene Irelands, out for their 20th season from Birmingham, Alabama; Mr. and Mrs. George Webb, long time Oasis guests who come south from their ranch in Northern California; Mrs. Jack Schlendorf, who arrived in the early fall to stay until after Easter as is her yearly custom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black joining the Seattle contingent, which also includes Dr. and Mrs. Tom Mestag, here for their annual winter stay at the Oasis, and Mrs. Mestag's sister, Mrs. Gilbert Duffy, of the same northern city. These latter three have been calling Palm Springs their winter home since away back in the 20s. Out from her home in Sioux City, Iowa, has come Mrs. Myrtle Davidson for her annual winter in Palm Springs, always having the Oasis as her address.

Genial Dewey Metzendorf, general manager of the Oasis, not only has time to make his guests happy, but his year has taken on the tremendous job of being chairman of Palm Springs' Community Chest drive to raise $50,000 for the locality.

Valentine Party At Desert Club

The Valentine's Day Party-Dance which LaQuinta Desert Club will hold on the evening of February 14, is a prelude to the Riverside County Fair and Date Festival at Indio (February 16-24).

On Sunday, February 17, Queen Scheherezade and her court will be dinner guests at the club.

A week later the Club plans a George Washington Birthday party on Friday, February 22.

Hallidays Entertain Lindemans

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halliday entertained Sunday evening for their friends Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lindeman (Seattle Post-Intelligencer publisher), with cocktails at their Crestview Drive home, and dinner at the Ranch Club.

Guests were Judge and Mrs. Julian Hazard, the Franklyn B. MacCarthys, Joe Hales, Ward Risvolds, Mme. Robert Esclandon of Fontainebleau, France, and Col. Ray Shelby.

Mme. Esclandon, who will spend a week here, before going to Los Angeles, will visit General Tank and his wife in San Francisco. Mme. Esclandon teaches French to military personnel with NATO, and the Tanks are former pupils. General and Mrs. Ernest Easterbrook (she is the daughter of General and Mrs. Joseph Stillwell) have also studied French with her, and she will visit Mrs. Stillwell in Carmel.

A graduate of the Paris Conservatory, she first met Americans when she was a cellist with an American orchestra in 1931. In 1945 the French Consulate sent her to Germany as an interpreter, and she was in Nuremberg, Munich and all over Bavaria. She is also the author of "Vos Quatre Verites," which she translates as "Home Truth for Men," and has appeared on radio and television.

She met Ray Shelby in Garmish, Germany, when he was a Colonel in the Army and representing the Army of Occupation in Bavaria. The visitor thought Palm Springs, with its palm trees and blue skies, resembles the Riviera. She said she likes and understands Americans because, like Frenchmen, they are gay people.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Church are visiting in the Village for a few days. Former residents of Palm Desert they are now residing in Newport Beach.

Stachlers Host Hoosiers At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Stachler entertained at dinner at the Ranch Club Saturday evening in honor of their houseguests the Hal Hendericks of Peru, Indiana.

Their other guests included three of the Crosby boys Philip, Lindsay and Denny with Pete Pettito. The Hendericks and the Stachlers recently returned from the National Automobile Dealers Association meeting in San Francisco where over 10,000 automobile dealers gathered.

The Hendericks left Sunday evening but, before returning home, planned to make a tour of Paramount Studios.

Two Callers for Horizon Dances

Horizon Trailer Village has engaged the services of two very popular callers for their square and round dances to be held Thursday and Saturday evening of this week, it was announced Monday by Leo Paquette.

Jim Bess of Riverside will be the caller for Thursday and Hoppy Hopkins of Indio will call Saturday.

Other parks participating in the dance program are invited to attend and asked to wear their badges.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The party season is on... with every day bringing new invitations... as hostesses get their dates set... Parties this time of year are special fun... because so many old friends are arriving back in the Village... and many of them have been gone since last April or May... They come back bubbling with delight to be here... They add new verve to Palm Springs life... and bring fresh appreciation of the privilege of living here... in this one-of-a-kind resort town... They have learned that... life can be beautiful... and life can be gay... If you only live it the Palm Springs way...

Three couples... Millie and Ed Houghton... the Bob Brooks and the Albert W. Howes... hosted a party in El Mirador's Starlight Patio last night... honoring Leslie and Ralph Fitzgerald on their second anniversary...

There to offer congratulations were... the Preston Estepes, Bill Reichels, Ernie Youngs... Howard Morris, Maury Horners, Sam Salingers... the Bill Groves, Jim Bushes, E. V. Andersons, Ralph Hurds... Frank Bogerts, Dick Vander Veers, Ted Ratcliffs... and many more...

Live love birds in little cages decorated the tables... for the sit down dinner... which was served to around 50 guests...

Margaret and Al Hill of Dallas (they own the Garden of the Gods Club in Colorado Springs) arrive tomorrow... to be houseguests of Lily Pons...

Jock Williamson is hosting a cocktail-buffet tonight at his home beyond Thunderbird... the party will honor Mrs. Fuller Halsey of Boston and New Hampshire... She's the sister of former Governor Alvin Fuller... and is spending two months in Santa Barbara, where she rented Jean Armstrong's house... She's here to spend a week... Jock has invited around 60 to the party... Mrs. Armstrong entertained for Mrs. Halsey at a luncheon at the Racquet Club yesterday...

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kiewit of Omaha, Nebraska flew here Sunday in their own plane... and brought Clark Swanson with them... Mrs. Swanson had come out earlier... The Kiewits own a Thunderbird cottage... which has just been re-decorated by Jock Williamson...

The Gilbert Swansons are due to fly out here this week... Cleo and Walter Melrose entertained Federal Judge and Mrs. William Byrne of Los Angeles... Dr. and Mrs. Francis P. Cross, of Bradbury Estates, Duarte... and the Walter Littles... at dinner at the Dunes the other evening...

During the house tour Sunday... which was sponsored by the AAUW... an elderly woman stepped back to admire a stone panel in the patio of Bill Bogges' house... and stepped into the swimming pool... She was promptly fished out by landscape architect Jim Hayes, who was standing nearby... Bill, who was showing some people through the house at the time... said later "I suppose Saul Ruskin will get me on the phone in the morning!"

Blonde, 29-year-old Doris James... who weighs 400 pounds and sings in the Sophie Tucker style... is amazing Spur and Sable audiences out at LaPaz... but never more than the night of the earthquake... She walked in do do her show... and the earth shook...

Gives Dinner
Louella Parsons was dinner hostess at the Racquet Club's Sunday night buffet. Her guests were Mrs. Frank Grant McClintock, Jimmy McHugh, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McHugh Jr., Lee Anderson, Helen Worth and Magda Graham.

There's a lot to Doris... so much so that she refers to herself as a "double feature"... and "Queen of the Heavyweights"... I missed the earthquake episode... but dropped in at La Paz Friday night to listen to Al Anthony play the organ and piano... and to hear the Big Girl sing... In the dinner crowd was Edward Exerett Horton! he stars at the Playhouse this week in "Arthur"... Margaret and S. P. Manasse were hosting a small dinner... and the Casey family was being presented with a cake... as a "welcome back to La Paz" gesture...

Saw Commander Reg Venable at the Sunday night party at Theresa Fields' Descanso Road home... and he told me his wife Fay Bainter is in Milwaukee appearing in "The Glass Menagerie"... Muriel Fulton was there with her sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Fulton, of San Francisco... who is here for the winter... Dr. and Mrs. William Elliott were hurrying off to the Polo Club (they were co-hosts with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams)... The Henry Dollards, James Skidmore... Charles Matthews, Judge and Mrs. Hilton McCabe, the Walter Braunschweigers... the Howard Flints, Charles Jinnettes and L. V. Britts, all of Detroit... were a few of the 100-some guests that filled the house...

Estelle and Ed Bacon were down from Palo Alto... and spent the weekend at the Racquet Club... seeing some of their old friends...

The weekend found a number of new arrivals... Elsa Bassichis, who with husband Bill, have just gotten in from Cleveland... was at the Marusia fashion show luncheon at Thunderbird... as was Joan Bering, just in from Chicago... and Edna Rothbart, whose husband Ed was due this weekend... The Rothbarts have taken Chuck Walters' house on Via Sol for the winter... They'll be here until May 1...

Peter Lind Hayes and Gordon McCrea... who were on Lux Video Theatre together Thursday evening... spent the weekend at Thunderbird with their families... Among other new arrivals there are the J. A. Ewalds (of Avon Cosmetics) from New York City... and the Merritt Joslyns and family from Chicago...

Bobbie and Bill Perlberg, the Malcolm Clarkes and Morry Greenspoon were dining together at the Dunes the other evening... and the men were plotting a golf game with Ruby for the next morning... They weren't betting on their games... they had a bet on who would show up to play... They all did...

Home Makers To Compete For Title of Mrs. America

Local homemakers will once more be vying with their counterparts from all over the state in the search for California's No. 1 "keeper of the hearth," according to plans for the 19th annual "Mrs. America" contest released today. Eligible to enter the "Mrs. America" competition are local homemakers, married, and 21 years of age or over. They will be competing for the coveted "Mrs. America" title and more than $15,000 worth of prizes, the reward for the national winner. Contestants in the search for "Mrs. California," next-to-last step in the nationwide competition, will share in some $10,000 worth of prizes. The Mrs. America contest, the announcement stresses, is not a bathing beauty competition but a test of homemaking abilities. Although personality, personal appearance, and community and family interests will be considered in the judging, the major emphasis will be placed on important house-keeping talents such as cooking, sewing, and ironing. First step for would-be contestants is to obtain application blanks at local gas company offices. From the field of applicants, a group of top local homemaker entrants will be chosen to compete for victory in regional finals. The regional winners will then travel to the Beverly Hilton early in April for the three-day state finals which will name "Mrs. California." The state winner, with her husband, will go to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for the national "Mrs. America" finals the week of May 7-14. The national contest is being conducted under the auspices of the American Gas Association; DeSoto Division, Chrysler Corporation; and Mrs. America Inc. Application blanks will be available through the month of February, the announcement pointed out.

CHRISTENED for the woman for whom she was named, Mrs. Charles E. (Mabelle Moore) Dant, the 15,000-ton SS M.M. Dant, received her new name before several hundred spectators at Long Beach last Wednesday. Mrs. Dant, wife of the late Charles E. Dant, one of the founders of States Steamship Company, christened the ship with a lusty swing of a champagne bottle against the prow.

Mrs. Dant Christens Ship Which Bears Her Name

In ceremonies at Long Beach, the Federal Maritime ship SS Wolverine Mariner became the States Lines-Pacific Transport Lines vessel SS M. M. Dant.

Christened by the woman for whom she was named, Mrs. Charles E. (Mabelle Moore) Dant, the 15,000-ton, 20-knot mariner received her new name before several hundred spectators. Mrs. Dant, wife of the late Charles E. Dant, one of the founders of State Steamship Company, christened the ship with a lusty swing of a champagne bottle against the prow.

W. J. Jones, president of the combined States and Pacific Transport Lines, was master of ceremonies. Speeches were made by Lloyd Fleming, Pacific Coast manager, E. J. Amar, Long Beach port manager, and Byron Stansfeld, longtime associate of Charles E. Dant. Rev. William Blonden, rector of St. Paul's in the Desert, gave the invocation and benediction.

Jack R. Dant, who now heads the combined operation of the States Lines-Pacific Transport Lines, was accompanied by his wife; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dant of Portland, Oregon and Robert Dant of La Jolla, brothers of Jack Dant, and Mrs. Wilson D. McNary of Palm Springs. Mr. Dant's sister, were all present at the christening and the reception which followed. Mrs. Charles Dant was accompanied to the ceremonies by her grandchildren, Daphne and Diana Kerr and Wilson D. McNary.

Also attending the ceremonies were friends of the Dant family from Palm Springs: Rev. and Mrs. William Blonden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Field, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leathers, Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Gertrude Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Si Slocum, and Mrs. Merlin A. Chase, formerly of Palm Springs, now residing in Portland, Oregon.

The new SS M. M. Dant is rated the most modern and efficient type of cargo liner now in service in the U. S. Merchant Marine, and also has accommodations for 12 passengers.

LANKY CLEM SWEETER, right, once rated as "the toughest lawman in Riverside County," chats with his longtime friend Gene Brinton as he waits for school to let out. Now a crossing guard for St. Theresa's School, Sweeter chalked up an unequal record as the crime-busting sheriff of Riverside County for eight years. (Desert Sun Photo).

Remember Clem Sweeter? His Life is Quieter Now

By AL LE ANCE

Clem Sweeter is a rangy, easy-going citizen who spends five days a week leading school youngsters across a busy street—a gentle occupation for a man who once led a six-time killer to the gallows.

Nowadays, as crossing guard for St. Theresa's School, this taciturn, 73-year-old specimen of the wilder west doesn't have much truck with killers.

BUT AS THE man who packed the Riverside County Sheriff's star through the uproarious, shotgun days of Prohibition, Sweeter spent an action-packed life in a grizzly world of moonshine and murder, often punctuated by the angry sound of gunfire.

From 1923 to 1931, the steely-eyed lawman cut a wide one-man swath through the moonshine camps of some of the country's biggest — and toughest — bootleggers.

"I guess was shot at more than any sheriff in California," Sweeter remarked with a wry grin. "But they never managed to dent my hide."

THEY CAME PRETTY close, though, Sweeter recalled, reflecting on the day when his gun jammed as he triggered a brace of shots at a fleeing burglar in the hobo jungles of old Banning.

The burglar's accomplice grinned, drew a .45 and started banging at the helpless peace officer. "He nicked my coattails, but I nicked him back when I got the gun clear," he said, smiling with satisfaction.

"Come to think of it," he thoughtfully added, "the government still owes me $1,000 reward for that boy."

SWEETER'S LUCK as a two-footed target held up while he waged a hard-hitting war on the desert wilds of Riverside County, favorite stamping grounds for West Coast "liquor distillers."

"Moonshiners were so thick out there, we'd stumble over more stills by accident than we ever did on purpose," Sweeter drawled, recounting how he and Ben White (now county coroner) uncovered a huge bootlegging operation on a quail-hunt.

The two men were beating through the brush when the sheriff spotted a man hugging a shotgun in a patch of bushes.

"He said he was out shooting fish," Sweeter said. "That tied it."

THE "FISH SHOOTER" led Sweeter and White, then constable at Blythe, to a still that produced $75,000 worth of illegal, white-lightning a month.

"Course we used to find a lot of stills by just smelling 'em out," Sweeter said, straight-faced. "They raised a heck of a stink—that's when my nose came in handy."

Many's the time, Sweeter recollected, when he, White and his only field deputy would dress up as farmers, pile into an old touring car and bounce out to the desert on a raiding spree.

THE "DISGUISED" lawmen usually netted six stills a trip in their "hayseed" getups.

It was a hectic, hard-riding life for the son of a Los Angeles hotel clerk Sweeter mused. He was three years old when his family settled in Banning.

As a young man, Sweeter tried his hand at farming, and later opened a Banning blacksmith shop which he operated 15 years. He went into law enforcement in 1914 as Banning constable and sheriff's deputy.

Sweeter confessed that he "ran out of steam" in 1931, and retired as sheriff. He returned to the Banning area as deputy tax assessor and later "farmed for a while" in Riverside.

WHEN WORLD WAR II broke out, he was recalled to the sheriff's office by the then Sheriff Carl Rayburn, formerly Sweeter's under-sheriff.

After the war, Sweeter again retired. He was "looking for something to do" last year when he was introduced to his present task by former Palm Springs Police Officer Gene Brinton, a longtime friend.

Brinton recalled that Sweeter, who "gave me my first rifle," was universally respected as a peace officer — particularly by the law breakers who felt the weight of his leathery hands.

"He was always a good man in a scrap," Brinton reflected, "but he sure did like us kids."

BRINTON MENTIONED the fact that Sweeter won national fame as the man who cracked Riverside's infamous "Murder House" case.

This involved a young man named Stewart Northcott who kidnapped or waylaid four boys, eventually killing them and burying their bodies in quick-lime. He later killed an elderly couple who asked for payment of a feed bill.

"He was a pretty strange young man, all right," Sweeter said. "But I guess he'd have to be to kill six people."

SWEETER EVENTUALLY led Northcott to the hangman's gallows, although he had to fight a lynch mob to do it.

The former lawman now lives at McKinney's Trailer Court with his wife, Addie, one-time matron of the county jail.

It's quieter, maybe, but he sure "likes those school kids."

"They're so polite, they even say 'thank you' when I take them across the street."

Resurfacing Set For Highway 111

Bids will be opened on March 7 in Los Angeles, for the resurfacing of 11½ miles of Highway 111 between Palm Desert and Palm Springs. It was announced by Clyde V. Kane, district engineer of the State Division of Highways in San Bernardino.

The resurfacing, which will prevent deterioration of the roadbed, will involve covering the roadway with a rock seal coat consisting of crushed rock imbedded in asphaltic emulsion to a depth of approximately one-half of an inch.

Kane said that the contractor would be allowed about three and a half months to complete the jobs.

1937. MCCLURE NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Of.

NEW YORK, (AP) — Billy Welu pronounced Way-Loo, three world's outstanding tall-man bowler, predicted today the nation will have major league pin toppling by 1960 "like in baseball and football."

Welu of Houston, Tex., said negotiations are progressing toward a league of major clubs that will include at least eight cities and have an eight-months season from September through April.

The dark-haired Texan, standing six feet four and one-half, named the cities that probably will have representation in the circuit. They are New York and New Jersey, Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Los Angeles, Cleveland and Philadelphia.

"It is expected that the league will be divided into eastern and western divisions," he explained.

BIG BILLY, who won the national doubles title with Don McLaren in 1954 and who has been a member of bowling's All-America team for the past two years, said several developments in the sport have set the stage for major league alley competition. They are:

1 The remarkable boom of the sport as a television attraction during the past two years has caused big-time sponsors, particularly in the beer industry, to seek major league competition that can be televised nationally on a regular schedule.

2 The refinement and modernization of the nation's 15,000 bowling establishments that followed the general adoption of automatic pin-spotting machines to replace pin boys.

3 The tremendous enthusiasm for bowling by women and girls during the past five years have made it America's biggest participation sport, with an estimated 30,000,000 persons rolling the balls each year.

4 Because of the unprecedented kegel boom, it is now possible for professional bowlers to concentrate on the sport and earn from $5,000 to $45,000 a year in competition.

WELU, ONE OF THE FEW tall men who ever became ace bowlers, is a member of the St. Louis Budweiser's winners of the American Bowling Congress national high series award for 1954-55 and 1955-56. At 25, his lifetime average in team competition is 212.

He has rolled eight 300 games and three 800 series. He had a high series of 822. His highest sanctioned game was 299 and his highest sanctioned series is 779. Why is it that few tall men are good bowlers, he was asked.

"Because their center of gravity is so high above the alley, and they have to develop a modified technique to be as good as shorter men," he said. "That takes a knowledge of the technique and plenty of practice."

Expect Williams To Sign $1000,000 Contract Today

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams interrupts a $1,000-a-day fishing exhibition today to reel in his seventh $100,000 contract with the Boston Red Sox.

Signing of the 38-year-old slugger to the highest player salary in baseball was scheduled to be announced at a news conference this morning with General Manager Joe Cronin.

The darkly-tanned Williams, in town as a feature attraction of a local sportsmen's show, was as uncommunicative about the terms of his 1957 contract on the eve of signing as he was about his broken romance with New York actress Nelva More.

There were reports that Williams, who said he would at least duplicate this year the 24 homers he hit in 1956 and start in 100 games, would ask for a $5,000 raise to pay for the spitting incident fine levied by owner Tom Yawkey last summer. There also was speculation that the Red Sox might ask Williams to take a slight pay cut. However, the contract was expected to be approximately the same as last year.

This will be the 16th season with Boston for Williams, who was out three years during World War II and missed parts of the 1952 and 1953 seasons while serving in the Marines during the Korean war. His lifetime batting average in 6,293 trips to the plate is .348. He has hit 418 home runs and driven in 1,552 runs.

Banning, Kazmier's quintet can't cry over their loss, for they lost their own game.

They lost by 11 points, 38 to 49, but on the official score sheets, they neglected to sink 9 foul shots. Their sliding zone offense just couldn't stop the barrage of the Charlie Brown-Lawrence Baca duet. Baca alone meshed a season high of 29 digits, not to mention the awesome speed Brown can manage to accumulate in driving bursts.

IN THE JAYVEE TILT, the last place Indians suffered another loss 40 to 49. After battling a 21-21 halftime score, the Paposes blew the game in the final quarter to end underneath a 47-40 tally.

Dick McFarland was the injuns big gun as he sank a total of 18 big buckets. He was followed by Ivy with 11. A big draw back hit the Bee's when Mike Warner transferred to another school.

LAURENCE BACA accumulated more than half of his teams total of points on simple lay-up shots. Banning's sky-scraping Bill Mier, whose 6 feet, 7 inches makes him undoubtedly the tallest of the hoopsters in the league, was held to a skimpy 2 points while top scorer Jerry Barr sank only 8 counters.

John Warren of the locals was high pointman for the Warriors with 11 for his account. Sam Jones and Bill Beck were accredited with 8 and 6 in that order.

The Indians meet Elsinore Friday on the local courts. This should prove to be an interesting contest.

Bruins Leading In PCC Statistics

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The UCLA basketball team, with a record-equalling 22 straight Pacific Coast Conference victories, is leading the PCC in three of the team statistical departments, it was disclosed today.

The Bruins rolled up their 22nd straight PCC win against Oregon State last weekend to equal the mark set by Washington in 1943 and 1944 and hope to surpass it against the Huskies up north this coming weekend.

PCC team statistics showed the Bruins ahead in total scoring, free throw percentage and field goal defense, in addition to being second in total defense and rebounding and sixth in field goal percentage.

KING-SIZED center of the All-American Red Heads girls professional basketball team, Jackie "Out-Rageous" Wraga will lead her team against an all-star team from the City Recreation Department basketball league here on February 14.

COLORFUL GIRLS HOOP TEAM TO COMPETE HERE

Howard Haddock City Recreation Department superintendent, said today that plans have been completed to bring to Palm Springs the colorful Red Heads, nationally known professional girls basketball team.

They will meet an All-Star men's team, picked from the Recreation Department's city basketball league, February 14 on the High School gymnasium floor, at 8:30 p. m. The Red Heads are known for their fancy passing, trick shooting, novelty routines and many crowd-pleasing antics.

A preliminary game will be played between the High School faculty and the G. A. A. at 7:30 p. m.

The games are sponsored by the City Recreation Department and the Palm Springs High School Letterman's Club. All proceeds, after expenses, will go to the Letterman's Club.

Clare Ballagh and Moya Henderson of the Physical Education department of the High School faculty cooperated with Haddock in arranging the event.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR NET TOURNNEY AT SMC

Preparations for the Sixth Annual Palm Desert Invitational Tennis Tournament which will start three days of stellar net activity at Shadow Mountain Club were practically complete today with some of the top names in tennis on the list of entries.

Competition will be staged for the men's and women's singles titles, men's and mixed doubles honors.

THE EVENT is being conducted jointly by the Tennis Committee of Shadow Mountain Club and the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce. The club committee includes Dottie Wenck, Kay Malone, Milt Page and Gene Roberts, the latter being chairman.

Roberts said that the tournament will be one of the outstanding ones in the southland. Perry T. Jones of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, is arranging details and will be the official referee.

HANDSOME TROPHIES have been purchased for the winners in the various divisions of the tournament. Roberts said interest in the event is high and advance sale of tickets brisk. He anticipates a record attendance all three days. The entry list includes most of the southland's star men and women tennis players.

The tournament will start Friday, February 8, with matches that day, Saturday and Sunday.

Ciardello Terms It 'Nothing Bout'

CHICAGO (AP) — Joey Giardello declaring himself the uncrowned world middleweight champion, said today his television battle to-night with Randy Sandy was a "nothing" fight.

"What I do with Randy Sandy doesn't matter," he said. "If it goes 10 rounds, or if I knock him out," he said, "I've proved myself already. I've beaten all the top ten in the ratings except Spider Webb and Rory Calhoun, and I haven't fought them."

Giardello, a cocky Philadelphian who has won his last six fights, was a solid 4 to 1 favorite to whip Sandy, even though the latter boasts a winning streak of five and has six victories in seven bouts since he was discharged from the Army last March.

Sandy, whose career was interrupted by his Army service, said he would "do my best and hope to win to get into the top ten and start toward the title."

"Giardello's a pretty good fighter, more a puncher than a boxer, but he was better when he was a welterweight. And I'm punching better now than when I was in the Army. I've had three knockouts in the last seven fights, so maybe it won't be as easy as Giardello thinks."

Robinson Gets into Middle of Another Mess

N. Y. Sports Writers Deny They Wrote Only the Bad Things

NEW YORK (AP) — Two New York sports columnists took issue with Jackie Robinson today and declared the ex-Brooklyn Dodger star "received excellent treatment" from the New York Press during his career.

Joe Williams of the New York World Telegram and the Sun and Dan Parker of the New York Mirror commented on Robinson's statement in Ottawa that some New York writers told him to his face they wouldn't write anything good about him. Robinson did not name the writers nor did he mention a paper.

Williams and Parker made it plain they spoke for themselves, for their papers' sports staff and for the New York press in general.

"We certainly gave no such instructions to anyone on our paper. I never heard of anything like that before," said Williams. "I can't imagine anyone running a paper that way. We took Robinson as a ball player and recorded his accomplishments at bat and on the field as such. We didn't go out of our way to create controversy."

"I believe Jackie Robinson got a remarkable press," Williams added. "And I feel it is regrettable in view of the fine contributions he made that his present sniping should cost him some of the popularity he richly earned."

"JACKIE ROBINSON had the greatest press any ball player in New York ever had," said Parker. "I don't know who is referring to. I know a lot of writers went to bat for Robinson when he became involved early in his career with Ben Chapman then manager of the Phillies."

The 38-year-old Robinson, still displaying his natural talent for stirring up controversy, conceded in Canada, that, on the whole, he had been treated well by the New York Press. Then he said some writers told him it didn't pay to write nice things about him and that they would have to wait for controversial issues.

"When they tell you that right in your face, you have to stop and think," Robinson said Tuesday night.

Caliente Book to Shun U.S. Mails

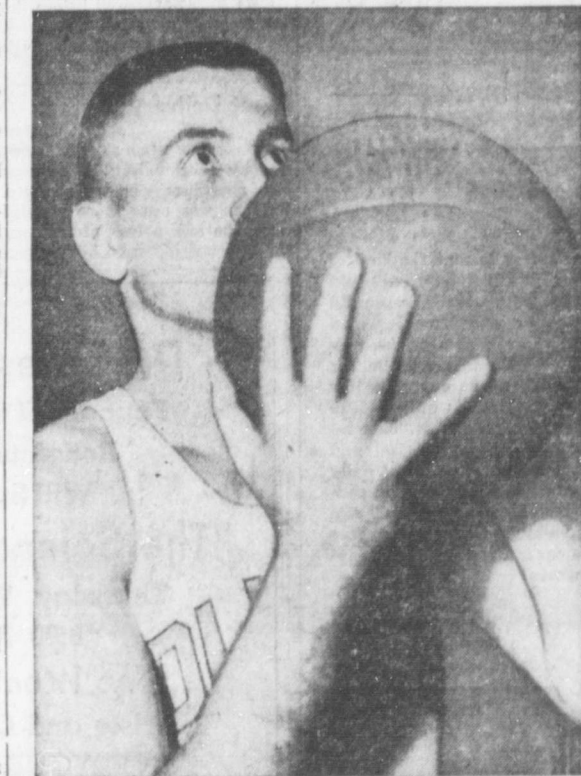

AGUA CALIENTE (AP) — Wagers involving the Caliente Future Book will be accepted only at the Caliente race track pending a hearing on a U. S. Post Office Department ruling prohibiting the mailing of such wagers.

The change was announced by the track Tuesday as a result of last week's crackdown by the Post Office Department on future book bets on the Santa Anita Handicap mailed to Caliente as a form of lottery.

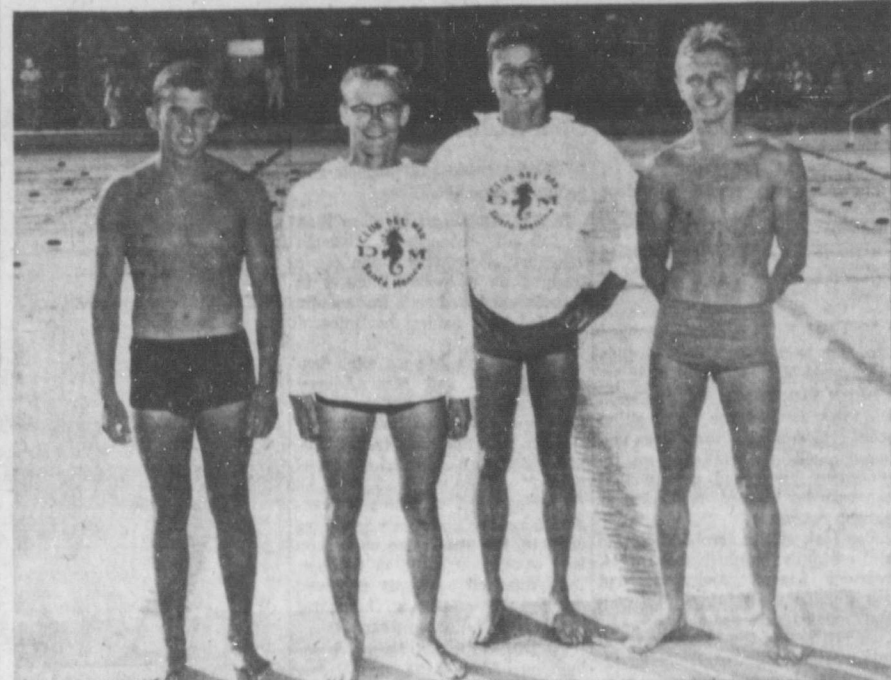

The local track denied its future book was a lottery and said it would ask for a rehearing.

REDLANDS LOSES

ORANGE (AP) — Chapman College pulled away from a halftime deadlock at 42 points to defeat Redlands University, 83-78, in a nonconference basketball game Tuesday night.

ONE OF THE SMALLER men in college basketball, Chet Forte (above) of Columbia is giving the 7-foot Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas a real battle for the scoring leadership on the collegiate court. Forte, who is 5'9", is averaging 29 points a game to Chamberlain's 20. (International)

Kin of Villagers on U.S. Champion Swimming Team

Mr. and Mrs. William Lippman of 1203 Buena Vista Drive, had something to boast about this week in the sports field. Their grandson, Larry Lippman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lippman Jr. of Brentwood scored another big honor this week in his favorite athletic event — swimming.

He is a member of the Club Del Mar, Santa Monica, Boys Medley Relay Swim team which, according to final 1956 tabulations by the Amateur Athletic Union of New York, was the fastest in the nation last year.

THE TEAM led all other 15-16 year-olds in the nation at the four distances at which they competed: 160, 200 and 400 yards, and 200 meters — a feat never equaled since the A. A. U. program was initiated in 1952. The times established were 1:28.4, 1:53.8, 4:16.5 and 2:09.7 respectively.

The team was composed of Larry Lippman (Brentwood), Bill Hamner (Rolling Hills), and Jim Lewis (Santa Monica) with John McCormick (Burbank) and Terry McNulty (Santa Monica) alternating at anchorman.

LIPPMAN, son of the William Lippman, Juniors, of Brentwood, is the grandson of William and Lucetta Lippman of Buena Vista Drive, Palm Springs, and has been a frequent visitor to the desert, competing in several swim meets at the Shadow Mountain Club. He is a senior at Black-Foxe Military Institute in Los Angeles, has been twice named a member of the Prep-School All American Swimming Team, is a National Junior Olympic Champion, and was 1956 Junior Men's Backstroke Champion of the Southern Pacific Association, A. A. U.

Turf Writers to Pay Tribute to Woolf

ARCADIA (AP) — Leading jockeys and turf writers covering the Santa Anita Park races will pay tribute tonight to the memory of the late George Woolf, famed jockey, at an annual memorial dinner held in connection with the jockey award presented in his memory.

Big Leagues Enjoy Brisk Ticket Sales

NEW YORK (AP) — The first ball of spring training has yet to be thrown but big league baseball is booming on virtually every front.

A pre-season survey of advance ticket sales reveals an estimated 10 per cent general increase over 1956 advance sales with several ticket offices reporting "record sales."

The National League champion Brooklyn Dodgers reported one of the most hopeful showings while the world champion New York Yankees said merely they are "way ahead of last year."

Ticket Director Bill Eberly disclosed that the Milwaukee Braves have sold 11,927 season tickets—five more than the previous high in 1955 — and said the sales might surpass the 12,000-mark before they're closed.

Renew Bowl Pact Without Changes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An "open end" contract today provided for an indefinite continuation of the New Year's Day Rose Bowl football game in nearby Pasadena between the Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Ten.

PCC commissioner Victory O. Schmidt announced Tuesday that all discussions and contracts for continuing the game under the present arrangements had been concluded.

The action insures the perpetuation of the classic without further vote of either conference and no party to the contract can cancel without a two-year notice.

The PCC has a similar "open-end" contract with the Pasadena Tournament of Roses which controls the Rose Bowl and the two conferences have such an agreement with NBC, which has exclusive radio and television rights to the game.

The new "open-end" contract continues the "no-repeat" clause which does not allow a team to play in the Rose Bowl two games in succession.

Angel View Crippled Children Hospital Busy Place

Pathfinders Take Interest in Fund Raising Activities for Facilities

By AL LE ANCE

The new sign across the door tells you that this squat, oblong structure overlooking Desert Hot Springs is the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic.

But if you read between the lines, the silent black lettering tells a bigger story—a drama of courage and pain which daily trends the boards of this citadel of hope.

OPEN THE DOOR and you walk into the first stage, a waiting room crowded with youngsters and parents, all marked with an inconspicuous, unobtrusive quality that can only be labeled as a kind of patient optimism.

You look at the scrubbed cheeks and carefully combed pony of 14-year-old Sharon Anderson, and you wonder what brings this radiant youngster to the clinic—and then you notice the blanket tucked into a wheelchair, carefully covering his steel-braced legs.

Her sunny outlook is reflected by four-year-old Lisa DiGrandi, who likewise wait for the only kind of treatment that can send them on their way to a healthy, running childhood.

ONLY THEIR EYES mirror the inward depth of a long accepted association with suffering.

Their meeting here takes on a sort of holiday air as they wait for the excursion to the treatment rooms, and the capable hands of one of the six doctors who donate their time and energy to children crippled by polio, arthritis, cerebral palsy, and even juvenile mishaps.

The attention of the doctors is augmented by a trained nursing staff, headed by Frances Anderson, whose efficient bustling typifies the unstinting efforts of an organization dedicated to the rehabilitation of children entrusted to its care.

FOUNDED by a group of businessmen, professional men, housewives and doctors, the Angel View Crippled Children's Association, which sponsors the clinic, was born in December, 1954.

Still in its infancy, the association is following a long-range, $750,000 program designed to make Desert Hot Springs a health mecca for crippled youngsters from all parts of the nation.

First step in the association's plan was completed last Friday with the opening of its new out-patient clinic, forerunner of a fully equipped, 30-bed hospital designed for the treatment of orthopedic and pediatric disabilities.

BUILT AT A cost of more than $20,000—all subscribed through voluntary contributions—the clinic features an up-to-date therapeutic department based on a therapeutic pool fed by a natural hot mineral well.

Located on a 26-acre site, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Wardman, the new building rises 1,400 feet above sea level east of Desert Hot Springs, facing Mt. San Jacinto's famed "Angel Wings."

Chartered as a non-profit organization by California's Secretary of State, the association opened its first out-patient clinic in October, 1955, financed by funds garnered in the association's inaugural fund drive the same year.

TO BOLSTER ITS campaign for building funds, the association created a special insurance plan, with the cooperation of the Constitution Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles.

The company set up a program for sales of 20-payment life insurance policies with a face amount of $2,000. Policy purchasers, through their premium payments, contribute about $500 each over a 10-year period.

Today, as it struggles to meet the incessant demand of a growing list of young patients, the association is again calling for financial support—the only kind of support that can keep alive the only convalescent home for sick and physically handicapped children in one of the state's largest counties.

SOMETIMES, as in the case of a group of 15 Palm Springs women known as "The Pathfinders," the aid comes unsolicited. But raising $750,000 for a project as serious as this isn't an idle pastime.

Last week, a delegation from the Pathfinders visited the clinic and announced their plans for carrying out an independent fund-raising program.

The clinic visitors, Mrs. Pearl McManus, Mrs. Belmont Sanchez and Mrs. Margaret Manasse, said they were opening a thrift shop in the old Neel's Nursery shop at 343 North Indian Avenue.

Merchandise will consist of usable items donated by village residents. Future plans also call for a dance and various other fund-raising social functions.

Another fund-raising group, the

IT'S A HARD PILL TO SWALLOW, but 11-month-old Lisa DiGrandi will eventually smile and gobble it down. Right now, though, Dr. Robert Bingham will have to come up with a better argument before he convinces the youngest patient of the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic, where Bingham is medical director. (Desert Sun Photo)

Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital Auxiliary, is staging its "Golden Spa Ball" Feb. 8.

Proceeds from such groups are the only means by which the clinic can remain in existence. Like most life-giving agencies, its very life is dependent upon the generosity of others—thanks to its policy towards patients from all strata of society.

"THOSE WHO CAN are asked to pay as much as they are able," said Aaron O. Galvin, president of the association's board of directors. "Those who cannot pay have only to tell us so."

"But no child," he declared, "will ever be turned away from the Angel View clinic or hospital."

This is the universal outlook of the association board, comprised of Dr. Robert Bingham, medical director; Sam F. Benton, chairman; Mrs. Lillian Kleinjung, treasurer; Mrs. Lola Hemingway, secretary; Mrs. Sarah Weiss, Mrs. Mamie Covey, C. C. Covey, Aaron L. Eaton and Jack Morey.

Newark Port Busy

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Newark Airport handled more than two million air passengers in 1956 for the first time in its history. It was estimated that approximately 2,198,000 persons passed through the terminal during the 12 months. This figure is exclusive of helicopter passengers who numbered some 25,000.

Supervisors Act In Support of Park Tramway

Ann Mary Elliott of Idyllwild presented the County supervisors with a resolution which she proposed for their adoption in place of that drawn up and presented to the supervisors last week by County Counsel Ray Sullivan, Jr., restating their support of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority and its tramway project, and it looked for a few moments as though it might be used, but after some discussion the supervisors decided to act on the one presented by Sullivan.

They voted unanimously for its adoption.

THE SUPERVISORS held up its adoption last week because of a request by Miss Elliott that a hearing be held. They ordered an addition to the Sullivan resolution requesting a hearing.

The Sullivan resolution was much stronger than that of Miss Elliott in regard to reiteration of the board's stand, but less strong in the request for a hearing.

The resolution adopted adds a clause, "the Legislature is requested, before acting to repeal the existing Act or otherwise limiting or restricting its provisions, to hold a public hearing in the County of Riverside upon such proposal."

THE HEARING request in Miss Elliott's resolution read as follows: "the board of supervisors does urge and request this 1957 State Legislature that the people of Riverside County be given a full and open hearing by said legislature for debate and study of the Winter Park Authority Act, the tramway project, and the Mt. San Jacinto State Park, such hearing to be held in Riverside County at the soonest possible date."

Miss Elliott appeared before the board of supervisors last week with a group in opposition to the tramway.

Meat Delivery Fast

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. Christine Cox was startled when an object came hurtling through her apartment window recently. But she was even more startled when she took a look at the missile—a pound of frozen hamburger.

of a 30-bed hospital, was viewed last week by Mrs. B. J. Sanchez, Mrs. Margaret Manasse and Mrs. Pearl McManus. Looking on are Frances M. Andersen, Angel View's physical therapist and chief nurse, and Aaron O. Galvin, Foundation president. (Desert Sun Photo)

Audacity Proved Undoing of Man Arrested Here

Too much audacity proved the undoing yesterday of 27-year-old Daniel Levitan, wanted by the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office on two fugitive warrants involving bogus check charges.

Levitan, who traveled under the alias of Daniel Layton, was arrested by Palm Springs police as he tried to pick up a Western Air Lines ticket to New York City, Police Chief August Ketmann announced today.

HE WAS BEING sought on a warrant from Los Angeles Superior Court for jumping $3,000 bail on four counts of bogus checks, and a municipal court warrant for violation of probation in a previous check charge conviction.

Det. Lt. Robert White said Levitan, who was greatly "shocked" by his capture, had been the subject of year-long extradition proceedings in New York. The hearings were dropped when Levitan agreed to return to Los Angeles under his own power, and promptly ducked out of sight.

THE ALLEGED CHECK passer boarded a plane for Los Angeles and was traced to Palm Springs by Los Angeles deputies Jan. 29. Palm Springs police were notified and searched hotels, restaurants and bars in the city, White said. Police left a photo of Levitan at the Western Air Lines office here and he ticket clerk called police when he showed up to get his ticket yesterday afternoon. The ticket was purchased with a $174 check, believed to be bogus, White said.

Levitan was hauled off to Los Angeles last night by two sheriff's deputies.

Supervisors Vote Enlargement of Assessor's Office

Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain, continuing his rampage to enlarge the facilities for county departments in Riverside, urged the supervisors this week to grant a request by Frank Burchfield, county assessor, for authorization to close the Tenth Street entrance to the courthouse and to partition off for his use the space between the entrance, which is on the north side of the courthouse, and the north corridor.

The request was granted by a unanimous vote of the supervisors, and the administrative officer was asked to work out the details and report to the board.

In a letter to the supervisors Burchfield said he has directed to the board's attention for the past several years the intolerably crowded condition of his offices. He said nothing had been done to alleviate the situation which has now become critical.

Because of the necessity for close liaison between his department and that of the auditor, tax collector, and tabulating department, Burchfield said his department should not be moved from the courthouse. The additional space which will be created by the entrance closing will be adjacent to the present offices of the assessor.

FOLLOWING THE TRADITION set by Benny Goodman of using the clarinet as a concert instrument is Mitchell Lurie, who will appear with Lurie's Fine Arts Wind Players in the Palm Springs Music Society program at the Jewish Community Center at 4 p. m., Sunday. Lurie, who graduated from the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, was solo clarinetist with the Pittsburgh and Chicago Symphonies before coming to Los Angeles as first clarinetist at the Disney Studios and for the Hollywood Studio Orchestra. Tickets for the concert are available at the Music Society office at Santos Catering in The Center.

Supervisors Argue As Usual, On County Salaries, As Usual

Acting on recommendations by the 1956 Grand Jury relative to the department of county schools, the county supervisors this week voted three to two against a Jones-McCall motion to increase the salary of the superintendent of county schools from the $7500 he now receives to $9,000, and delayed making a decision pending further study.

The Grand Jury recommendation was for a minimum of $10,000.

Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain made a motion to recommend to the state legislature than an increase to $10,000 be approved, but withdrew it when Supervisor George Berkeley said he'd like more time to study information on the matter in the board's files.

SUPERVISOR PAUL Anderson indicated his approval of the $10,000 salary and Berkeley said he thought he would go along but wanted more time.

Supervisor William Jones said he favors the advance to $9,000 because he believes the salary should be raised some to be in line with the salaries of other county officials. He said he did not believe a salary of $10,000 is needed to attract a qualified man.

SUPERVISOR FRED McCall said he is opposed to the increase to $10,000 just as he is opposed to other proposed raises including that for the supervisors from $6,000 to $8,400 approved by the supervisors recently over the "no" votes of Jones and McCall. "You can get good men in this county without going overboard and offering them a lot of money," he declared.

"We're not going overboard," said Supervisor Anderson. "It is a matter of recognizing a problem and meeting it. I'm not in favor of slave labor."

"I suppose you'll be more efficient if and when you get a salary of $8,400," said Jones.

"I DON'T PROPOSE to perpetuate my job as you do, Mr. Jones," retorted Anderson. "I believe the county may get a better man than I am if the salary is increased."

"I think we are out of order," interposed Supervisor Chamberlain. "Things are being brought up which are not on the motion under discussion, the salary of the county schools superintendent."

"We are not out of order," snapped Jones. "Any time a motion is made it is subject to debate and I will debate as much as I want to."

IT WAS THEN, that a vote was taken on the Jones-McCall motion for the increase to $9,000 and was lost.

After discussing other Grand Jury recommendations in regard to the county schools department, the supervisors voted three to two, with Supervisors Jones and McCall dissenting, to instruct county counsel to prepare a resolution expressing their approval of a Grand Jury recommendation that the state legislature be asked to enact legislation which would do away with election of county school superintendents and provide for their appointment by the board of education.

A RECOMMENDATION by Administrative Officer Clay Begole that the supervisors deny a request by Ray Johnson, superintendent of county schools, for transfer of the school library from the county libraries to his office, was unanimously approved by the supervisors.

Begole's recommendation upheld that of the 1956 Grand Jury, but was contrary to the recommendation by the Board of Education.

County Group To Study Farm, Its Operation

Members of a committee to study operation of the county farm and recommend to the board whether it should continue to function or its operation be abandoned, were appointed by the supervisors this week.

Appointees are James J. O'Brien of Indio, Joe Stinchcomb of Moreno, Ed Wall of La Sierra, and Rudy A. Hardman and F. E. Pinkerton of Riverside.

The Grand Jury has recommended that operation of the farm be discontinued, but that the property be retained for future county building.

Arriving during the weekend to enjoy the winter sun at the Desert Air Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nelson of Puyallup, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Walker of Feather River Inn at Blairsville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs, of Woodhaven, N. J.; and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holman of Vancouver, British Columbia; Robert D. McCroft and family, down for the Rodeo weekend, left Tuesday for their home in Los Angeles.

A most charming cocktail and dinner party was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell at their home last Saturday evening. Those enjoying the friendship and hospitality of the Campbells were: Messrs and Mrs. W. L. Brubaker, Michael Buccino, Brad Davis, Edmond Fernald, William Frantz and Mrs. Alta Kenyon.

Back at their studies following the mid-semester vacation are Angela Buccino, daughter of the Michael Buccinos, who spent the enjoyable days with her parents; and Judy Frantz, who divided her time between Los Angeles and Rancho Mirage. Judy is a student at the University of California at Riverside, and Angela is attending the San Diego College for Women.

Here for a month as the houseguest of Mrs. Marcelle DeVanna is Mrs. Claire Benton, a native of France, who now makes her home in New York City.

KATHY O'NEIL and the well known dog, Sandy, who will soon appear together in a TV series, will be at the dog training class of Bud Kinnaman at the Polo Grounds tonight, Wednesday, starting at 7 p. m. The class is presented in cooperation with the City Recreation Department. (Herb Richardson Photo)

275 Delegates to Attend Savings, Loan Meeting Here

More than 275 delegates from all parts of the state will attend the annual management conference of the California Savings and Loan League that gets under way here Feb. 11 and runs to Feb. 13.

Desert area representatives to the conference, scheduled for the El Mirador Hotel, are William H. Smith, Palm Springs, president; and Arthur L. Cooper, executive vice president, of the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association.

League president E. Ronald Long, of San Francisco, will preside at the meeting. The conference will inaugurate a new forum program on questions of intra-industry and politics and views.

The roster of speakers lists prominent officials from all parts of the nation, including California Congressman Patrick J. Hillings and ranking bankers from New York City, Topeka, Kan., Phoenix, Ariz., and Los Angeles.
